FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

The week closed upon an eventful period in the story of Wall street. The excitement a portion of the time was of the most intense nature and the irregularity. The occasion of this disturbance of values and of the commotion which it produced was the sequel to the recent "locking up" combination to make money stringent and demoralize the stock list. It seems that one of the principal parties to this scheme, an ex-director of the Eric Railway, quarrelled with his confederates after entering so far into their plans as to contribute a million of dollars out of four millions which he promised to advance in carrying out the project for modeline. ice in carrying out the project for producing a nation be had put out contracts to sell "short" ned to "corner" him. Accordingly on Saturday ginning of the week. In the meantime he so far humiliated himself as to beg for nercy. Finding that he could obtain none he instied or participated in a motion for an injunction ing the funds of the corporation for any purpos soever. The clique, however, were too smart move they had quietly obtained an order making one their own number receiver of the affairs of the erate effort to purchase the stock at the then maret price, in hopes of saving as much as he could om the coming destruction. His enemies then ob-tined a supplemental order, authorizing them to ad the price of Erie up to par. This last stroke on Thursday, when he capitulated with the best grace he could, selling his contracts at a loss of now overloaded with the stock and the ex-director a chance for revenge in turn. They had pur ased it all the way from 35 to 62, and the great tions which the clique resorted to origi-pally in their attack upon the market. A sudden hue and cry was raised against Erie and it is now almost without quotation. A petition has tered in some trust company or responsible banking tituted for selfish motives, the public is likely to the gainer-another proof of the felicitous results now where it should be-in the hands of the clique f swindling stock gamblers, who were too dishonest of the street, and had to resort to fraud to accom ready fallen from 55 to 41, and will go still lower if he honest dealers of Wall street will continue their ock gamblers' office and placed in some public their losses by this fall in the stock the clique will se forced to retire the over issues, when they tised on the stockholders and on the ic in general. They are desperate in their idenly turned "bulls" on Friday and Saturday, reek closed upon a dull market in consequence.

for the business of the ensuing week. The large increase in legal tenders and deposits shows the return of the money which the Eric clique employed for their speculations and which they have now ex-changed for the load of stock at present in their safes. There is also a vast quantity of money usually Invested in stocks unemployed in consequence of the demoralized condition of the market.

There was a strong market for United States securities in the latter portion of the week, and the steady and healthy investment demand was stimu-ated by the unreliable nature of stocks, and by an Prankfort to 79. The stock market was variable within narrow lim Str at the end of the week. Some activity was created in Rock Island and Michigan Southern by a susdcton that the clique would next attempt a move-nent in them. Toledo was active and touched 100% colidated with the Michigan Southern. A movement was also attempted in New York Central by the Thursday, but quickly receded when it was discovered that they had been completely bassed in an atsempt to open the books and thus transfer stock to their account against the annual election, which comes off December 9. The portrait of Señor Marfori is for the moment the lion of the Paris boulevards. It has the prominent place in the print shop windows in the galerie des contemporains, and as such stands out alone on a little easel a few inches in advance of the reigning sovereigns and their wives. The intimate councilior of Queen Isabella has the physique of one of those herculean footmen who stand behind Belgravian carriages. He began life as an actor, and it was during his impersonation of a knightly warrior that he made the conquest which opened him the road to fortune.
